

Tuesday's Children provides healing and resilience for military families of the fallen and families affected by 9/11, turning pain into purpose while honoring their legacies.

OUR PROGRAMS MEET EVOLVING NEEDS

10,000 individuals served through 1:1 services

4,800
attendees at 140+ programs

2,100 engaged in family-focused activities

500+ served through mental health & wellness programs

CAREER RESOURCE CENTER
625+ participants served through workshops & partnerships

LONG-TERM YOUTH MENTORING
315 Gold Star children mentored

TURNING PAIN INTO PURPOSE & RESILIENCE THROUGH PEER CONNECTIONS

HEART TO HEART

Convened Military Families of the Fallen at the Men's Retreat in Missouri and Military Surviving Spouses at Women's World Peace in Paris, France.

PROJECT COMMON BOND

Engaged 70+ youth from 11 countries at Bryn Mawr College in PA and Mayan Dude Ranch in TX.

Engaged new corporate partnerships, adding to our 150+ industry partners.

BUILDING CAPACITY AND COMMUNITY RESILIENCE

Tuesday's Children provides training, resources and professional guidance to communities looking to address the needs of survivors and service providers. In 2023, we convened experts in trauma and grief and served more than 600 survivors and service providers through forums and speaker series.

